Pat Cash to Serve on Foundation Board

Columbus –National City Bank Executive Pat Cash, a Worthington resident and community volunteer, has been named to the Ohio Presbyterian Retirement Services (OPRS) Foundation Board of Directors.

Cash is National City's Sr. Vice President, Public Affairs/Community Relations/Community Development. Cash has been vice chair of the Ohio Housing Finance Agency and the Community Shelter Board and a member of the Joint City of Columbus Franklin County Housing Advisory Board. Cash is a member of the House Committee of the Athletic Club of Columbus and arbitrator for the Better Business Bureau. She received her Bachelor of Arts in Education from DePauw University in 1972. Cash and her husband Jack Isaacson have three grown children.

Each year, OPRS serves more than 4,900 residents in its 11 retirement communities and more than 49,000 people in 38 Ohio counties through Senior Independence, the home and community based services division of OPRS. The OPRS Foundation raises several million dollars annually to support charity care, special programs, capital expansion and endowment.
